

Role Profile

Job Title: Chief Electrician

Reports to: Captain/Chief Engineer

Location: Offshore

OVERVIEW OF ROLE

The Chief Electrician is responsible for carrying out maintenance, repairs and modifications of the electronic / electrical systems onboard the Ship, including high voltage, and for ensuring that such systems are in compliance with governing regulations and demands concerning the systems.

All personnel are expected to contribute to creating a positive HSEQ culture within Niger 7 and ensure familiarity with and adherence to local HSEQ codes and practices.

All personnel are also expected to contribute to creating a culture of ethics and integrity within Nigerstar 7 and ensure familiarity with and adherence to our Code of Conduct.

SPECIFIC KEY RESPONSIBILITIES & ACTIVITIES

- Contribute to creating a positive HSEQ culture within Nigerstar 7.
- Carrying out maintenance and repair of the following Ship equipment according to established procedures:
 - Communication system
 - DP system, including DP reference systems (HPR, HIPAP, UPS, Tautwire, Artemis, Fan Beam within their ability and proficiency
 - Electrical systems
 - Motors and generators
 - Transformers
 - Lighting systems
 - Navigation systems
 - Alarm and control systems
 - All electrical power systems
 - Switchboards
 - Video and entertainment systems
- Carrying out repairs as directed by the Chief Electrician and/or Chief Engineer.
- Carrying out modifications on the equipment as directed by the Chief Electrician and/or Chief Engineer.
- Keeping workshops and tools in order and serviceable.
- Reporting technical status to the Chief Electrician/Chief Engineer after their stay on board.
- Assist the Project Team as requested or instructed by the Chief Electrician and/or Chief Engineer.

- Verification of third party equipment prior to installation to ship's power.
- Responsible for the Ship's Computer Network System as appropriate.
- Ensure the appropriate personnel are in place to carry out activities to support the electrical maintenance and repair work and are suitably trained and qualified to carry out the work.
- Assist Chief Electrician/Chief Engineer in providing support to the Master in conducting "Shipboard Management Review" in accordance with the ISM Code.

AUTHORITY/DIMENSIONS

- Operate within the Code of Conduct
- Operate according to Nigerstar 7's Management Principles
- Support standards and procedures for the Marine Function

KEY RELATIONSHIPS/ STAKEHOLDERS

External

- Those necessary to comply with this role profile

Internal

- Chief Engineer
- Captain

ORGANISATION STRUCTURE

- As per the Shipboard Organisation Document

PERSON SPECIFICATION

- Recognised relevant academic qualifications or evidence of having completed an appropriate apprenticeship within an electrical trade or Marine Electro Technical qualification in compliance with either STCW A-III/6 or A-III/7 as appropriate and in accordance with Flag State requirements.
- Recognised Seaman's discharge book
- High Voltage certificate.
- DP Maintenance certificate.
- Able to communicate effectively in English, both verbally and in writing in accordance with STCW Code Table A-II/I
- Appropriate knowledge of ship's Safety Management System (Ref: ISM Code)
- Completed Security Awareness training relevant for the position (Ref: ISPS Code)
- Hold at all times a valid seafarer medical fitness certificate and offshore survival certification suitable for geographical area of work
- Training in accordance with the Nigerstar 7 Training matrices

JOB CAPSULE

This position is linked to job capsule S516-Electrician and band F.